SOCIAL CHANGE

A Journal for Social Development

Social Change is a journal for social development published once a year. The Journal welcomes original contributions from all view points on various aspects of social development. It is designed to promote understanding of the society at its depth touching upon both theoretical and empirical dimensions of research. This journal is a major forum for those wishing to deal directly with the methodology and practice of social and environmental perspectives and future. Social Change is a podium for the exchange of ideas among scholars, policy makers and development practitioners, their intellectual and constructive ideas would smooth the way to social transformation in a de-sired manner. Appreciating their consecrated commitment to people and society we earnestly believe that they will make vital contribution through projection of ideas and views embellished with their sagacious policy recommendations. Readability and good writing style are important criteria for publication.

The topics include, and not limit to:

- o SOCIAL DEVELOPMENT
- o SUSTAINABLE DEVELOPMENT
- o HEALTH
- o EDUCATION
- o HUMAN RIGHTS AND GOOD GOVERNANCE
- o ECONOMIC EMPOWERMENT
- o WOMEN EMPOWERMENT
- o ENVIRONMENTAL MANAGEMENT
- o CLIMATE CHANGE AND DISASTER MANAGEMENT
- o MIGRATION AND DISPLACEMENT

The Journal is published once a year. All the submitted manuscripts will be reviewed by a panel of reviewers. Social Change is an open access and Printed journal where the accepted articales being published online and Hard copy and also access is Free-of-Charge for both the abstract and full text of the article.

From the Editor

YPSA annually published Social Change journal that is a platform for the exchange of ideas among scholars, policy makers, academicians, researchers and development practitioners, their intellectual and constructive ideas would smooth the way to social transformation in a desired manner. The advisory board of Social Change decided to publish upcoming issues of the journal on different social development issues. This will give the readers concentrated information on a specific issue. However, presently the board decided to publish this current issue on the different aspects of development issue as it became a very much talked subject in the development field.

As an Editor-in-Chief of the Social Change, I would like to take the opportunity to thank again all contributors, particularly scholars, policy makers, academicians, researchers and development practitioners those who are working in this issue.

I also would like to thank all the writers who contributed to publish this issue by submitting their study based research manuscript and practical experiences which will definitely enrich the quality and archive of intellectual write-ups on contemporary development issues related issue for all the interested scholars, researchers, activists, students and also the GO-NGO-CSO practitioners. Finally, I express my kind gratitude to all the board members for their valuable consent, comments and encouragement for the timely publication of the issues of Social Change so far.
